

National Taiwan University

Presidential Candidate Nomination Form

(For joint signatures)

Name of Nominated Candidate	Signature
	Month/Day/Year

1. Nominators' Information

Representative: Affiliation: Position:

Telephone: Fax: Email:

Name	Affiliation/ Position	Status of Work	Mailing Address	Telephone	Signature

Note:

1. One candidate may be jointly nominated by a group consisting of at least 20 currently appointed or retired academicians of Academia Sinica, professors, associate professors, research fellows, associate research fellows from academic institutions in Taiwan and abroad.
2. One candidate may be jointly nominated by a group consisting of at least 5 members of the Presidential Search Committee.

Name	Affiliation/ Position	Status of Work	Mailing Address	Telephone	Signature

Note:

1. One candidate may be jointly nominated by a group consisting of at least 20 currently appointed or retired academicians of Academia Sinica, professors, associate professors, research fellows, associate research fellows from academic institutions in Taiwan and abroad.
2. One candidate may be jointly nominated by a group consisting of at least 5 members of the Presidential Search Committee.
3. Add extra pages if more space is needed.

2. Reasons for Nomination

Please provide reasons (no more than 2,000 words) for nomination on the basis of Article 14 of the NTU Regulations for the Presidential Search Committee (see Note 1).

Note:

1. Presidential candidates must comply with the regulations governing presidential appointments at national universities in Taiwan, as well as possess the following qualities:
 - (1) Moral integrity and outstanding academic achievements;
 - (2) Administrative skills in education; and
 - (3) Ability to administer matters impartially and beyond the interests of any political groupPresidential candidates must promise to fully commit themselves to university affairs during their term of university presidency and should not hold any post in any political party.
2. Add extra pages if more space is needed.